

What To Know

TEACHERS AND EMPLOYMENT

3 Laws Every Teacher Should Understand

TENURE

Changes in tenure have been around for a while now. California's teacher tenure laws were labeled unconstitutional about two years ago, which is one great example of why you can't always rely on tenure if you have poor competency.

It's been ruled in over 40 school districts across the US that you can't be friends with your students on Facebook, for good reasons, of course.

FACEBOOK

GIFTS

In Massachusetts, teacher and employees can't receive a gift of more than $50 in worth. This is also to help prevent favoritism towards specific students.